Armies, circus games, grain ships and the Latin Language held the ancient Mediterranean together. This introduction to the ancient world connects you to the stories, images and places that let you pose questions at the frontier of quantitative historical analysis.

CL 109

Introduction to Greece and Rome

3 hours, fulfills HA